DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Crow et al. (USPN 4192500).

Regarding claim 6, Crow discloses a sports training and conditioning device comprising a handle shaped like a grip and having a first end and a second wherein a undeformable weight is attached to the second the second end of the handle (See Figures 1-3). Crow also notes that the device can be from 6 inches to 3 feet in length and that the weights can weight from ½ to 15 pounds (See Column 2, lines 42 through 51; and Column 3, lines 17 through 27). It is also noted that the user may select the weight desired (See Column 3, lines 17 through 27). Based on the above, the location of the center of gravity of the device would be based upon the length of the device and weight desired by the user; thus one having ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to have the center of gravity located at any length so long as it meets the conditions disclosed by Crow et al. Further, Crow et al. discloses the device being used to strength training and adding arm strength. It is submitted because of such that the weight of the device is dependent on what is desired by the user and would be obvious to have the device weight any amount so long as it attain the goals disclosed by Crow et al.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 6 has been considered but is moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
